Subject: Appreciations for your sincere support in administering an External Exam.

Dear Dr R SUJATHA RANI,

As an External Examiner for the Listen to Speak Activity held over ZOOM call on 8th & 9th January as part of one of the fulfillments of Coursework 'Employability Skills' at our English Language Communication Skills Lab, your valuable remarks and suggestions made a deeper change in the students' perspectives. You have obliged to implement a process for establishing a satisfied activity of conducting an exam to supplement the motto of Learning by Doing. On behalf of our Institute, I really appreciate your commitment and the time you have provided to our examination process along with the significant role which you have played in the development of our Engineering Graduates.

We acknowledge and are very grateful for the extra work that you took on by supervising our students. It is undoubtedly invaluable both for the Programme and for the individual students that are given this opportunity. We appreciate your willingness to contribute in their strife to become capable future Technocrats. In that respect we think it is also important that you have high expectations and demands on the students. Hopefully, they can in turn be valuable and productive.

Thank you!

Yours sincerely,
